

My heart beats again

1, Sometimes it's hard to admit something went wrong, my tongue is tangled, 'cause it has been so long,
since I've walked solo.

It can't be true you let me go just like that, i remember the moment, when we two first met,
and now it's all over.

When you said it, said it,
I thought i'll never get over,
You said it, said it,
And I was all alone,
I was on my own

R. I thought my heart won't beat again,
but then I saw you standing there.
I wonder do you feel the same?
I feel that my heart beats again

2, I came to you and asked you what is your name?
I will call you "an angel", is that ok?
You smiled right back at me.

If I were yours, you would be happy, I swear,
I would show you every day, how much I care.
This I swear.

Please just say it, say it,
that you want to be mine,
Say it, say it,
I would love to try with you,
just say I do.

R. I thought my heart won't beat again,
but then I saw you standing there.
I wonder do you feel the same?
I feel that my heart beats again

B, My heart was broken,
my heart was broken,
but now it beats again.

My heart was broken,
my heart was broken,
but now it beats,
it beats because of you.
